

Order Is Formed to Fight Ku Klux Klan

Spokane, Wash., Aug. 9.—To combat the Ku Klux Klan, which is reported to have organized in Spokane, Constable J. F. Howard announced that plans had been perfected for an organization to be known as the "Three Brothers." "Organization of the 'Three Brothers' is a direct challenge to the Ku Klux Klan, and it is our purpose to remove all members of the so-called Ku Klux Klan from the public offices they are now holding," said Constable Howard.
